A COMMUNITY TRADITION!

YOUR SPONSORSHIP WILL HELP SUPPORT...

PARADE Sponsored by the Independence Township Fire Department. Join your friends, neighbors and relatives in this great community tradition! The parade route will feature over 100 entries. The Parade line up begins at St. Daniel's Church, proceeds down Miller Road to Main Street to Church Street, ending at the Renaissance High School/Community Education Bldg. To enter a float, call (248) 625-1924.

"FESTIVAL OF FUN" After the Parade through downtown Clarkston, build family unity by spending the day enjoying the many activities at Clintonwood Park! There will be great food all day long, sold by local civic and church organizations such as: hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, pop, ice cream, candy, fruit and even your carnival favorites such as Elephant Ears and Roasted Almonds. Festival goers can also enjoy the Craft Show and live entertainment. Bring lawn chairs and blankets for your comfort and enjoy the summer fun at the park. Parking at Clintonwood Park is $5.00. Shuttle parking will be available from Clarkston High School for $2/person.

FIREWORKS A great day has come to an end, now sit back, relax and enjoy fireworks right here in your community! Live entertainment & Children's Games will precede the fireworks, so come early and get a great spot to watch the spectacular colors in the sky! Guaranteed a 30 minute show, weather permitting. Shuttle parking will be available at Clarkston High School, located on Clarkston Road and Flemmings Lake Road.
